

The First International Seminar on:
FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHING
& INTERCULTURAL AWARENESS
November 16th - 17th, 2016

Dr. HELLALET Souhila

Abstract

In the era of globalization, foreign language teaching has become a worldwide concern for diverse reasons. As language vehicles thought; foreign culture is also assumed to be transmitted as a consequence of the teaching/learning process. Intercultural awareness then is an undeniable issue to be discussed in any foreign language teaching atmosphere. The issue identified above is expected to be significant for teachers, learners, researchers and educationists in general. The importance of the subject will be seen in the exchange of experiences and expertise among local and foreign interveners in a way that raises the students' awareness in the English department that debates on intercultural issues will serve them in many sorts of ways. This meeting provides an excellent opportunity to share the results of the teachers and students research with a varied audience.

Issues

The seminar provides the opportunity to explore research in a variety of disciplines where the following trends and issues will be of particular interest but are not limited to:

- Foreign language education in the era of globalization;
- Teaching language and/or teaching culture;
- Foreign culture Vs. native culture in the EFL classroom;
- Foreign language learning and foreign culture acceptance and/or avoidance;
- Education and Multiculturalism;
- Inter/Cross-cultural Education and Language Curriculum Design;
- TEFL and intercultural awareness.

Seminar Objectives

- To initiate students into debates on interrelated issues of EFL;
- To show the importance of culture awareness in Foreign Language Learning;
- To take advantage of different experts' experiences on the issue;
- To encourage students find a compromise between their native culture and the learned culture.
